TOWN TALK.

—While laboring under a fit of temporary insanity, brought on by overheating, Capt. Clarence M. Clarke shot himself through the heart at his residence, No. 216 Fifth street northeast, on Sunday morning last. Capt. Clarke was born in Ohio in 1845, graduating from Yale, and enlisted in the Fifteenth Connecticut Regiment when seventeen, serving through the war. He was a member of Burnside Post, G. A. R.
—The most popular teacher may get a free trip to Europe, but those of the male persuasion who remain at home may find delight and good cheer at the New York Buffet, where the genial Maj. Costello dispenses hospitality of the most exhilarating and agreeable kind.
—You'll need an extra pair of trousers when you go on your vacation. Let us make you a pair to measure. Our $5 assortment will please you. Eisenman Bros., 7th & E, manufacturing clothiers and tailors.
—The District Commissioners have sent to the House District Committee a report opposing the construction of the proposed East and West Washington Traction Railroad Company.
—Drink Tannhauser beer. H. Benzler.
—L. J. Terry, aged thirty, until recently a clerk in the War Department, died of hemorrhage in his room at the Hotel Fredonia on Sunday night last. Mr. Terry was a native of Massachusetts.
—Mail is now delivered on the summer schedule, which is 7:30 and 10:30 A. M. in the business districts and 7 and 11 A. M. and 2 P. M. in the residence portions of the city. The hours of collection will be 4:30 and 9:30 A. M. and 12:30, 2, 4, and 9 P. M. The 2 o'clock collection only extends throughout the business district.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—For family and table use drink Xander's pure Virginia claret, the best tonic and stimulant you can get for the hot weather. A fine line of old mellow whiskeys and sherries for medicinal use a specialty. Also pure blackberry brandy and wild cherry bitters, my own make, for summer complaints. Only the best California cabinet wines sold.
CHRIST, XANDER, 909 Seventh street northwest.
—The pastor and congregation of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, on Fifteenth street, have strongly protested to the Commissioners against the granting of licenses to the four saloons on the square on which the church and its parochial school are located.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—Henry H. Tucker, alias W. S. Scott, the bogus theatrical agent, who obtained money and jewelry from Miss Helen Audenrod on the pretense that he would secure her a position on the stage, was sentenced in the Criminal Court on Wednesday to a year and a day in the penitentiary.
—A dog which was frothing at the mouth snapped at Special Officer Ferguson at the corner of Third and F streets toward early Wednesday morning. The officer killed the animal. Poundmaster Einstein continues to make vigorous warfare on untamed dogs.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—The Florists' Club, of the District, is again moving for the erection of a separate flower market. At a meeting of the club Tuesday evening a committee appointed to consider the matter reported in favor of the erection of a building on the reservation north of the Centre Market, between Seventh and Eighth streets.
—A jail and reformatory for women in the District is provided for in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Ingalls. The institution is designed to accommodate 300 inmates and $300,000 is the limit of cost fixed.
—The colored citizens who think policemen are too free in the use of their clubs on colored prisoners have formed an organization called the Citizens' Protective Association. Steps have been taken to secure the removal of Assistant District Attorney Ames for entering a habeas corpus in the case of Policeman Dean, who was accused of having beaten a negro prisoner named Sam Hutchinson.
—The House District Committee seems to be in favor of a license bill which will fix the rates even higher than they are in Commissioner

Douglas's bill, now before the committee. The fee for wholesale licenses in the latter is $300 and for retail licenses $500. The committee is understood favoring a fee of $500 for the former and $1,000 for the latter.
—Drink Tannhauser beer. H. Benzler.
—The professors and students of Howard University are annoyed at the presence of the pool-rooms at Seventh street and the Boundary and have petitioned Congress to abolish pool-selling in the District of Columbia altogether.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—The workmen of the District have been discussing the railroad problem, and at a meeting of the Federation Tuesday night resolutions strongly opposing the Atkinson bill were adopted.
—A bill has been favorably reported to the House appropriating $5,000 for a library for the Government Printing Office. The appointment of a librarian at $1,500 a year is also provided for.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—In the Criminal Court on Tuesday Frank K. Ward was admitted to bail by Chief Justice Bingham on bonds of $25,000 that he will appear for trial on October 14. The Chief Justice exacted a pledge from the prisoner before releasing him that he would abstain from intoxicating liquors. The ground on which the Chief Justice based his decision was Ward's ill-health, which made freedom and a change of scene essential.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—The citizens of East Washington will formally celebrate the completion of the new Pennsylvania-avenue bridge on August 23 with a parade, speeches, a barbecue, a regatta, fireworks, and general decoration and illumination.
—Thin coats and vests. Eisenman Bros., 7th & E.
—Mr. John J. McElhone, chief stenographer of the House, who had been in poor health since the opening of the present session, died at Atlantic City on Monday of paralysis, aged fifty-nine years. Mr. McElhone had been a member of the House stenographic corps since 1849. He was an expert in his business and very popular personally.
—Heurich's Extra Pale Lager. Ask for it.
—The flowers in front of the Agricultural Department building are particularly beautiful just now. It is worth a walk or drive around that way to see them.
—New Georgia watermelons, large and of fine flavor, are in the markets. New apples and peaches have also appeared.
—Drink Tannhauser beer. H. Benzler.
—The Printing Pressmen's Union of the District has been incorporated by James E. Hardy, F. Fraser, E. A. Bauser, S. T. Brown, and E. J. Duff.
—The Sisters of Charity in charge of St. Rose Industrial School, 223 G street, return sincere thanks to Capt. Blake, of the steamer Corcoran, for the usual annual trip to Marshall Hall on the 18th instant, and also to Col. James C. McKibbin, manager of Marshall Hall, for the great kindness shown to sisters and children, who enjoyed a very pleasant day.
—Fancy and staple groceries at auction. Hatcliffe, Darr & Co., auctioneers, will sell on Thursday morning, June 20, commencing at 10 o'clock, at store of G. A. Burch & Co., 1904 Seventh street northwest, a large and well-assorted stock of fancy and staple groceries and liquors. See their advertisement for particulars.
—The old officers and directors of the German-American Fire Insurance Company were unanimously re-elected on Thursday.
—Lincoln Hall was crowded to the doors on Thursday evening, when the graduation exercises of the High School took place. Diplomas were given to 251 graduates.
—Cool clothing for the boys. Eisenman Bros., 7th & E.
—A great opportunity is offered persons needing household furniture in the auction sale of Thomas Dowling of the entire contents of the Livingston, Nos. 106 and 101 Thirteenth street northwest, June 26, at 9 A. M.
—The franchisees, patents, and other property of the Smith National Cycle Manufacturing Company, embracing machinery and material of every description for the manufacture of such goods, together with unfinished wheels of their patents, will be sold at auction by Thomas Dowling, Thursday, June 26, at 2 P. M., at 809 Water street southwest.

—From the enormous sale that "Cook's Balm of Life" is meeting with it bids fair to be a great success, which it richly deserves, and the flattering testimonials given by the District of Columbia Supreme Court judges and other prominent citizens of Washington speak well for what it claims.
—Messrs. George B. Sheetz & Co. have bought of Mr. E. M. Sheetz the store at the corner of Tenth and F streets northwest, where they will continue the confectionery business and will endeavor to please the most fastidious. We wish the new firm much success.
—Excursion to Luray Caverns.
A personally-conducted excursion to the wonderful Caverns of Luray is announced by the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. for Wednesday, July 9. The special train will leave B. & O. station at 8:30 A. M. and reach Washington on return trip at 9 P. M., allowing four hours at the Caverns. Dinners can be procured at Luray Station Restaurant or at the famous Luray Inn. The round-trip fare will be $3.50, and as the number of excursionists will be limited to 150, those desiring to take the trip should call early at B. & O. ticket offices, 619 and 1351 Pennsylvania avenue, and secure seats. No extra charge for reserving seats in advance.
—World's Fair Commissioners.
The President yesterday appointed the following commissioners-at-large to the World's Fair at Chicago: Gaston W. Allen, of New York, in place of Edwin H. Ammidown, declined, with Louis Fitzgerald, of New York, alternate, and William M. Lindsey, of Kentucky, in place of Samuel W. Inman, of Georgia, declined, with Patrick J. Walsh, of Georgia, alternate.
—For Your Good.
Cook's Balm of Life, Great Heavens! what music in the name.
What magic in its use, what glory in its fame! What man would do without it, in poverty or wealth.
When by its use he can secure a guaranty of health? Think of it, ye, the suffering, and thank thy God above.
That such a gift has blessed mankind through His great boundless love; And thank that God, ye who are sick and racked with pains and fears, That Cook, man's benefactor, lived within this vale of tears.
E'en dread Dyspepsia, fell disease, Professor Cook assures, The Balm, when properly applied, invariably cures. Sick headache, too, that great curse to dames and maidens fair, Yields quickly to the Balm of Life when too severe to bear.
To coughs and colds, sore throat and cramps, and indigestion, too, Cook's Balm of Life will ever prove an antidote to all ills that should raise.
For dandruff, or for loss of hair, or skin disease, 'tis said, Cook's Balm's the best. It also cures diseases of the head.
'Tis better far than all the oils, or glycerine, or grease.
For as a dressing for the hair it never fails to please.
But greater far, this glorious Balm deserves the need of praise.
For cruel neuralgia's cure we all our voices high should raise.
And let the world, let every clime—North, South, and East and West—Accept the Balm of Life as of all God's good gifts the best.
